About the Authors

Bernasiewicz Maciej – pedagogue and sociologist, Doctor Habilitatus employed at the Social Pedagogy Department at the University of Silesia, Katowice, Poland.

Chojnowski Dominik – pedagogue, Ph.D. student in pedagogy at the Maria Grzegorzewska Academy of Special Education. He obtained his B.A. and M.A. diploma at the Christian Theological Academy in Warsaw. Research interests: K. Dąbrowski's theory of positive disintegration and the trend of mental hygiene in Poland; broadly understood neo/Marxism and critical pedagogy.

de Paor Cathal – joined the Mary Immaculate College (MIC) in Limerick in 2006 as Director for Continuing Professional Development at the Faculty of Education. He teaches on a range of education programs for the primary and further education sector. Prior to joining MIC, he had worked for the National Council for Curriculum and Assessment (NCCA) and before that as a primary school teacher. His other research interests include curriculum and program evaluation.

Gajdzica Zenon – special education teacher, professor of social sciences. Head of the Department of Social and Educational Inclusion, employee of the Department of Ethnology and Educational Sciences in Cieszyn, University of Silesia in Katowice. Author of works in the field of education and socialization of people with intellectual disability, integration and inclusive education as well as theoretical foundations of special pedagogy.

Gadušová Zdenka – Ph.D., an experienced university manager, project coordinator, researcher, and teacher trainer in the field of methodology of teaching foreign languages. She is the author of 5 monographs and a number of articles as well as a regular presenter of her research results at conferences and other events.

Gmerek Tomasz – Doctor Habilitatus, Professor of the Adam Mickiewicz University – an employee of the Faculty of Educational Studies at the Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan. His research interests concentrate on problems related to educational sociology and comparative pedagogy. Recently, he published, inter alia: Edukacja i tożsamość etniczna mniejszości w obszarach podbiegunowych (studium socjopedagogiczne) (Poznan 2013), Polityka apartheidu w szkolnictwie RPA. Geneza, rozwój i konsekwencje (Poznan 2017).

Górniewicz Józef – pedagogue, Full Professor, Doctor Habilitatus, Head of the Department of Theory of Education at the Faculty of Social Sciences of the University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn, former rector of that University. His scientific interests include general pedagogy, higher education studies and modern theories of upbringing.

Konopczyński Marek – Full Professor, Doctor Habilitatus, Head of the Department of Special Education at the University of Bialystok, author of the scientific concept of creative resocialization based on the theoretical grounds of symbolic interactionism, cognitivism and pedagogy of culture. The methods of creative resocialization developed by the author successfully find their application in penitentiary, correctional and educational institutions in Poland.

Łukawski Tomasz – Headmaster of a primary school. He was appointed by the Minister of Digital Affairs to the Digital Champions Team. An educational innovator, a social activist whose passion is to change the Polish school. Member of the Program Council of the Broad Agreement on Digital Skills in Poland. He is the originator and organizer of the national conference of the Model of Modern School.

Melosik Zbyszko – education sociologist, Full Professor, Doctor Habilitatus, Head of the Department of Sociology of Education at the Faculty of Educational Studies of the Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan; member of the presidium of the Committee of Pedagogical Sciences of the Polish Academy of Sciences.

Mulligan Anne T. – Ph.D., Senior Lecturer at the Middlesex University in London, teaching primary mathematics and geography on the Initial Teacher Education programs. With over 20 years of experience in teaching in the primary classroom, including 4 years as a Deputy Head Teacher, Anne's areas of interest include problem-solving and anxiety in mathematics.

Nikitorowicz Jerzy – pedagogue, Full Professor, Doctor Habilitatus, Head of the Department of Intercultural Education at the Faculty of Pedagogy and Psychology, University of Bialystok. Scientific secretary of the Committee of Pedagogical Sciences of the Polish Academy of Sciences, member of the Polish Pedagogical Society.

Nowicki Michał – Assistant Professor at the Department of History of Education at the Adam Mickiewicz University. His research interests are related to the history of education in the Old Polish period, especially in Poznan (the Lubranski Academy and the Jesuit College in Poznan), and the history of religious and philosophical education.

Predanocynová L'ubica – Associated Professor, Ph.D., university teacher, researcher and teacher trainer in the field of methodology of teaching philosophy and civic education. She is the author of 4 monographs and a number of articles, regular presenter of her research results at conferences and other scientific and special events.

Rubacha Krzysztof – Full Professor, Doctor Habilitatus at the Faculty of Pedagogical Sciences at the Nicolaus Copernicus University. He deals with the methodology of social sciences, especially the methodology of research on educational processes. The author of the monograph Metodologia badań nad edukacją, WAiP, Warszawa 2008, 2011. He also conducts empirical research on moral education, social functioning of teachers, and gender issues.

Suwalska Arleta – Assisstant Professor of the Department of Theory of Education, University of Lodz, comparative pedagogue, Ph.D. in social sciences, author of an English monograph English Educational Policy. Contemporary Challenges in a Historical-Comparative Context, Wyd. UL and UJ 2017.

Śliwerski Bogusław – Professor of Pedagogy (social science) at the University of Lodz; since 1994 member of the board of the Polish Pedagogy Committee for the Science Academy in Warsaw, since 2012 the President of it. Since 2010 he has also been a professor at the Academy of Special Education at the Institute of Education. He founded the journal entitled Studies on the Theory of Education (Studia z Teorii Wychowania) and has been the Editor of four international Handbooks of educational studies (Gdansk 2006–2010). He managed numerous projects in educational research and authored over 700 publications in his own research areas: humanistic education, anthropological and philosophical as well as empirical and practical discourse in modern and postmodern education in a comparative perspective. His research interests include areas of pedagogy, theory of education, alternative education, comparative education, theory of school.

Tufekčić Adnan – Ph.D. in pedagogy, Associate Professor for specific scientific area "Theoretical scientific pedagogical discipline" at the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences of the University of Tuzla in Bosnia and Herzegovina. His areas of research interest include theories of education and pedagogical anthropology.